Background

This tiny diesel locomotive was built for light railway equipment supplier, Robert Hudson & Co. Its early history is somewhat of a mystery however, it was finally purchased by the Cattle Creek Sugar Mill in 1961 and worked as a navy locomotive.

Fitted with a 2 cylinder McLaren – Ricardo diesel motor it proved too light for most duties. Donated to ANGRMS in 1976 it was transported to Rocklea before being moved to Woodford in 1979.
